Trying to Further Dishonor Her. The father of Fred Rowell called at the Journal office yesterday and said that he wanted a "correction" made in regard to the statement made yesterday that Fred Rowell had been sent to the workhouse for living with another woman when he has a wife living. The only "correction" he demanded was that the name of the girl be printed. It is the girl's first offense and the publication of her name could do not the publication of her name could do not be the statement of the publication of her name could do not be the statement of the stateme good, but instead might cause her to fall further. She was a country girl, and the young man does not seem to see that his offense becomes the more grievous in trying to drag the poor girl's name into the public prints. Forgot to Borrow the Lautern. A. N. Whitsetf, aged nineteen, living at 1094 North Meridian street, was arrested last evening at 6:50 o'clock for violating the bicycle ordinance by riding without a lantern. The young man seems to be having a run of ill-luck, as his bicycle was stolen some days ago, and the wheel he rode last night was borrowed. He forgot to borrow the lantern. He was released on bail.

Immense Demonstration with Fireworks and Novel Features-President Ingalls's Speech.

To-night there will be the big demonstration of railroad sound-money clubs, with an address by President Ingalis, of the Big Four road, at Tomlinson Hall. Many clubs from outside the city well be in, and the trains on which they arrive will run around the Belt road to the Panhandle, C., H. & D. and Big Four tracks, and thence to State street, where they will unload. Chief Marshal Shaw will be at State street from 6:45 till 7:45 o'clock in the evening, when he, with his staff, will move to the head of the column, which will start promptly at 8 o'clock. The Vandalia engine will run on the street-car tracks over the line of march, and the managers of the parade urge citizens to keep horses off the route, as the big engine invariably frightens them.

The head of the column will start from Hanna street, march west on Washington street to Pennsylvania, south on Pennsylvania to Maryland, west on Maryland to Illinois, north on Illinois to Washington, east on Washington to Pennsylvania, north on Pennsylvania to Ohio, northeast on Massachusetts avenue to Delaware, south on Delaware to Tomlinson Hall.

THE CAMPAIGN WIND-UP.

Republicans to Have a Huge Demonstration Oct. 31. The Republicans will wind up their campaign in this county with a monster demonstration Saturday night, Oct. 31. This will be the largest political demonstration ever seen in this city, and will far surpass any other that may be seen here this year. There are now more than 100 Republican clubs in this city, with many others in the New Ideas suburbs and in the country. These will all be in line to show the strength that the suburbs and in the country. These will all principles of the Republican party can muster for the final battle, Nov. 3. There will be fireworks of all kinds, and plenty of them. The arrangements are rapidly being made and full details will be announced soon, with such additions each day as may be decided upon.

Club members are all anxious for this big demonstration, for there never was as many or as strong Republican clubs as are now in the city, and the members want to show what they have done in the way of organization. It is expected that there will be a very large per cent. of the able-bodied members in line. The parade will be made up in five divisions, and any one of them will equal the ordinary political parade. The place of honor at the head of the column will be given to the old soldiers and sons of veterans. They will form the first division, forming on North Meridian street, north of the monument.
